In a free society education is established as an institution to help men lead richer lives both as individuals and as social beings. What it means to be a human being seeking to lead a rich life, then, is the central question of education.

From the North Haven High School Philosophy

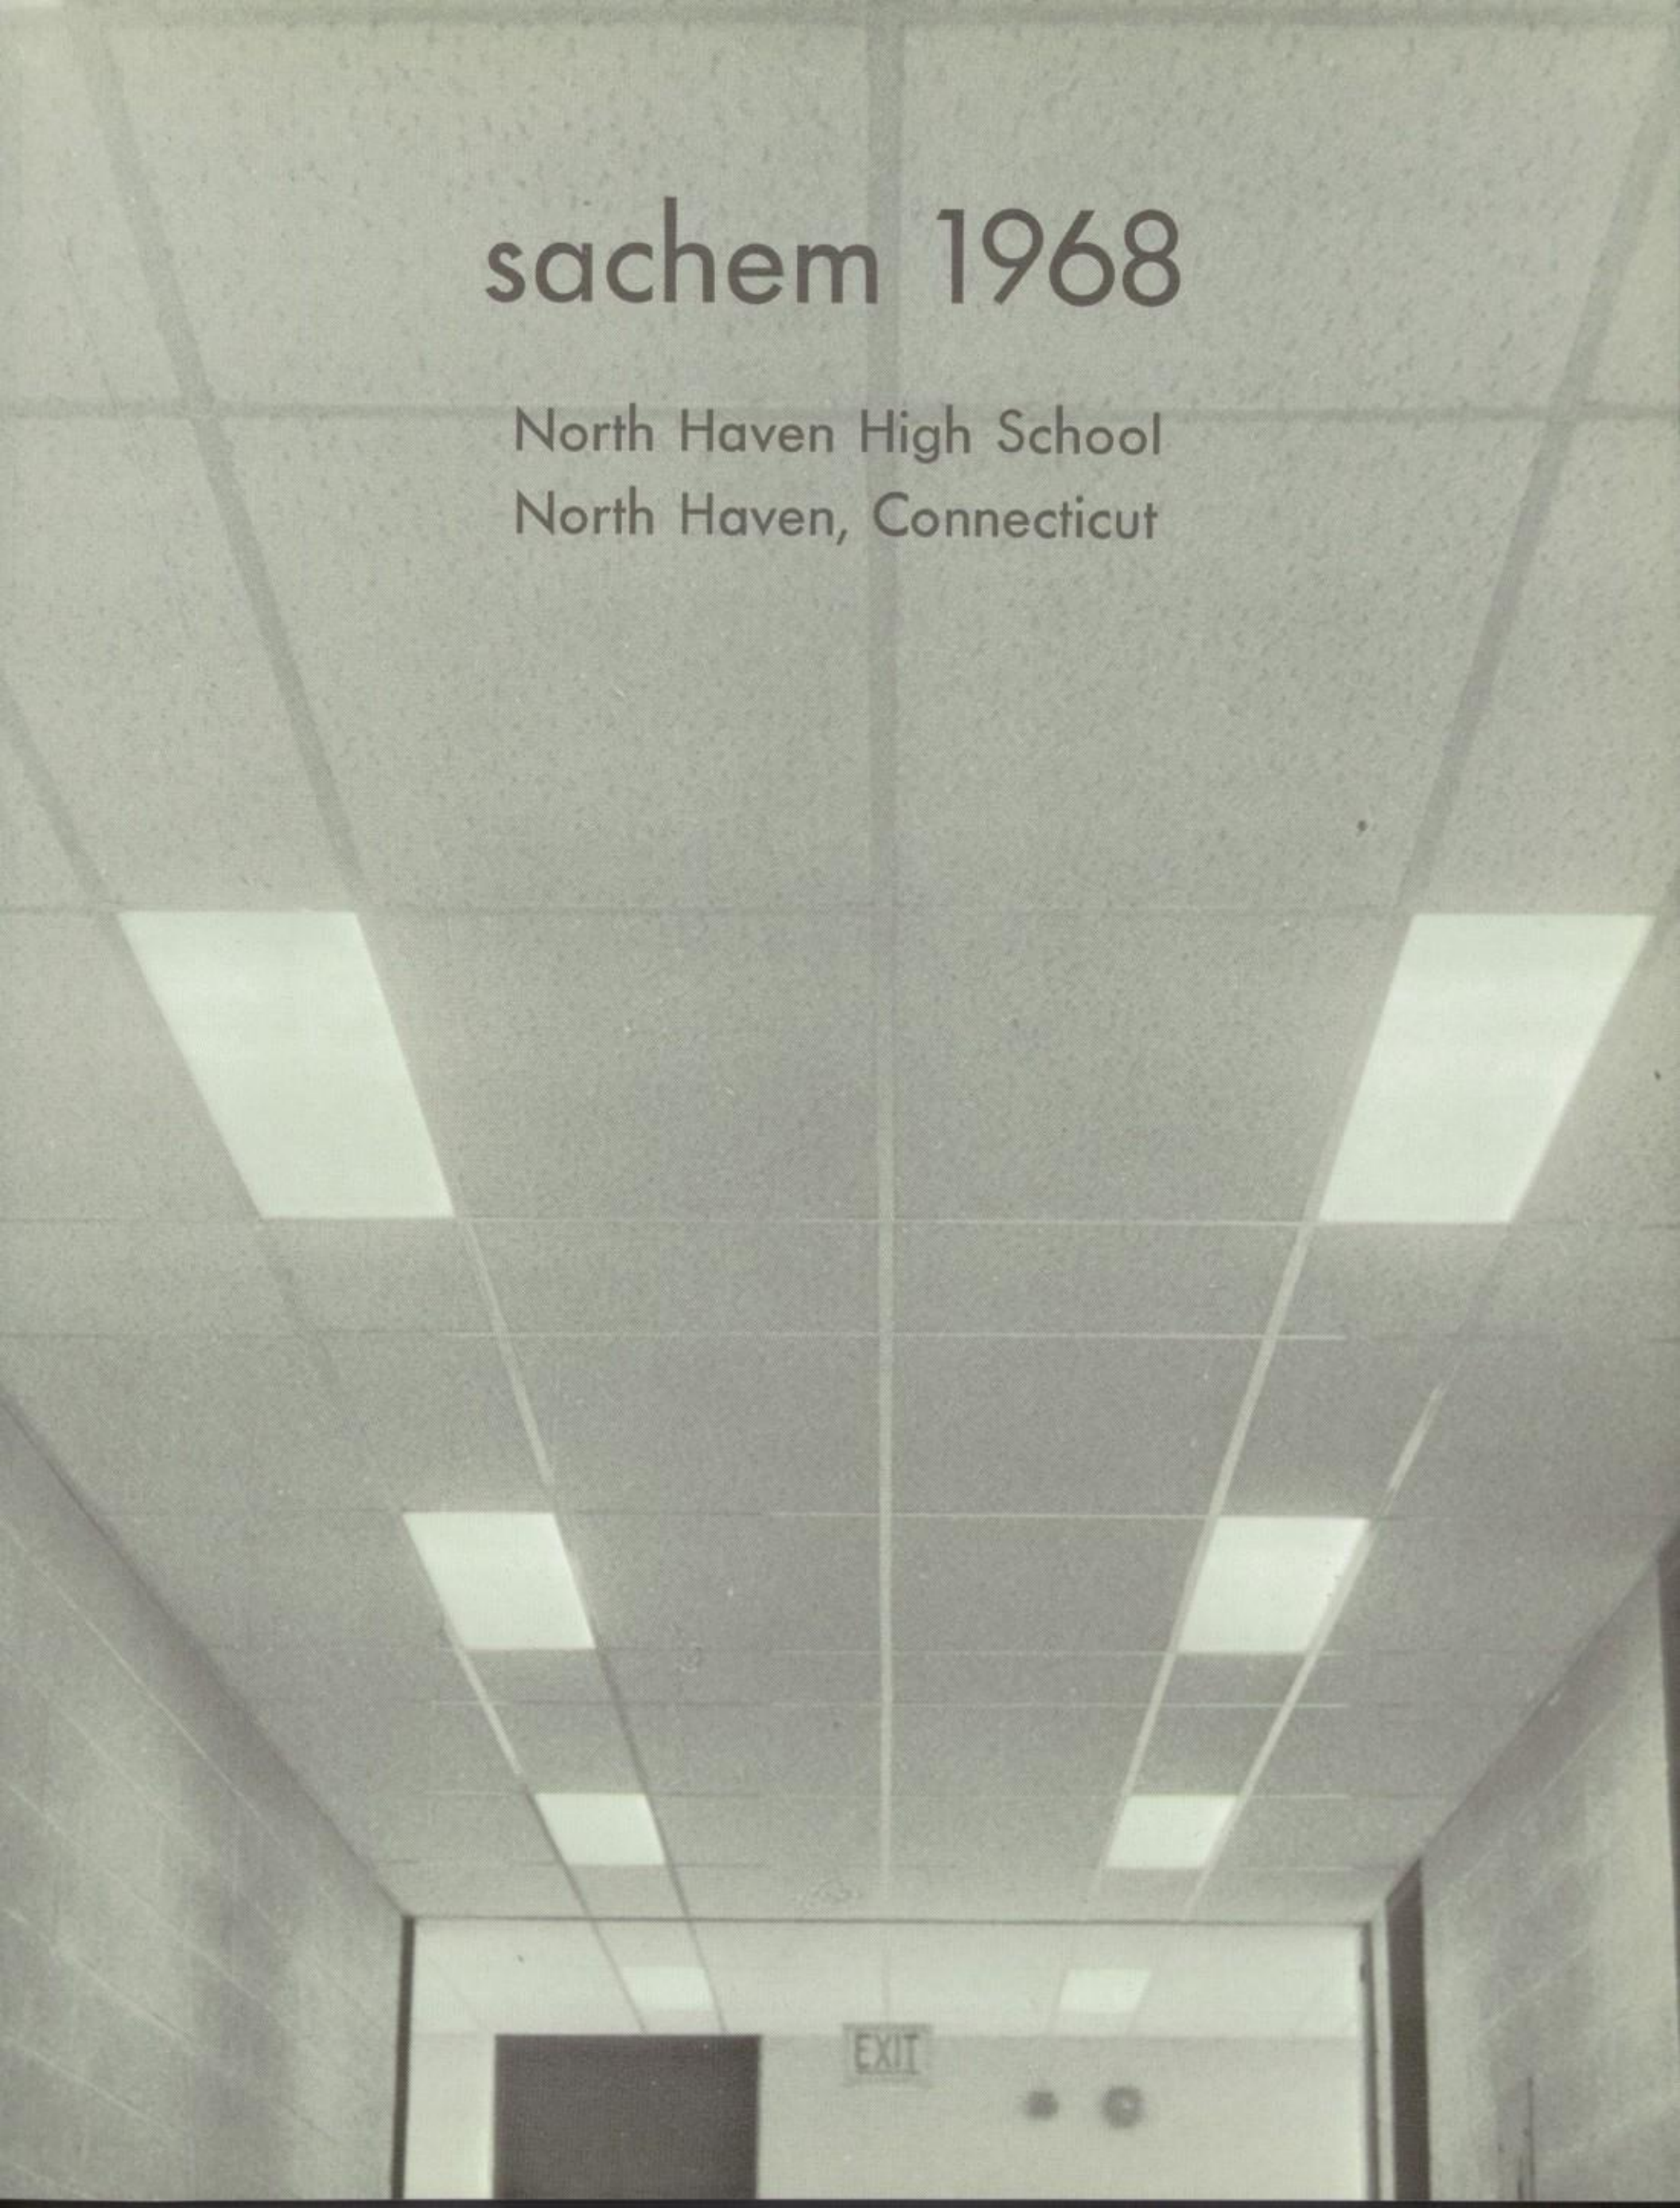
North Haven High School
North Haven, Connecticut



What would you think if I sang out of tune,
Would you stand up and walk out on me?
Lend me your ears and I'll sing you a song,
And I'll try not to sing out of key.
I get by with a little help from my friends,
I get high with a little help from my friends,
Going to try with a little help from my friends.

John Lennon and Paul McCartney

Every new idea, every conception of things differing from that authorized by current belief, must have its origin in an individual.

John Dewey

There is evidence . . . that the critical lines of tension in our society are between emphasis on individual performance and restraints on individual performance. This tension will never be resolved and should never be resolved.

The focus on development of the individual's views in the classroom will have its counterpart in guidance. While the classroom provides opportunities for the individual to analyze problems in a social context, the school guidance program allows him to experiment and to examine and t discuss his problems in a more personal contex thus aiding his growth toward the freedom tha comes from self-knowledge.

Martin Yinug, North Haven High School's foreign exchange student for 1967-68 comes from one of the most remote areas of the world that has ever been involved in the A.F.S. program: Yap Island, Micronesia, Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands. Martin came to us in August, 1967, already displaying an amazing command of the English language.

Martin's host family is the Christian Engelhardt family and he has been coming to school with his host brother Richard.

Martin's adaptation to a society and climate that are totally foreign (at his home on Yap Island the temperature never goes above 90 or below 70) has been complete. Martin got his first taste of snow, T.V., western cooking and what it means to put a coat on to go outside in North Haven.

When he returns to his home this summer he plans to apply to the University of Guam and go on to a career in law.

class will

I, Paul Adinolfi, leave all my cruelty to whomever wants it.

I, Cathy Allen, leave to Neil Salowitz the last sign of the friendship of Joy Fassett, Fran Farmer, and Sally Silverstein, that was left to me, hoping that he'll never forget it.

I, Charles Anderson, leave Something to Someone and Nothing to No one.

I, Melvin Anderson, leave my footsteps to be followed in by Carl Seadale and my sisters Gwendolyn and Sandra.

I, Linda Belsito, will to my brother Stephen all the fun and games in Mr. Olson's class.

I, Alan Bennett, leave my knee brace and all my Athletic tape to Kevin Gilbride who needs it more than I did.

I, Barbara Berry, leave to N.H.H.S. all my Bookkeeping grades.

I, Sandy Bodwell, leave Debbie Faccadio 24 free mods.

I, Dan Bornstein, leave my talent for goofing off to anyone who can get away with it.

I, Betsy Bowden, leave to Mr. Keough all my P.O.D. notes and old newspapers, so he can pass them on.

I, John Bowden, leave to N.H.H.S. my locker to anyone who can open it and understand it; to Dave, 17 blown transmissions; to anybody, 12 unused mods in lunch.

I, Gail Brenner, leave Mrs. Urbanski's 5 minute run to anyone who can stand it.

I, Denise Bruneau, leave the peanut butter sandwich, which has been in my locker since 10th grade, to my sister.

I, Randy Buccelli, leave my crusty gymsuit to anyone who can stand it.

I, Mike Callinan, leave to N.H.H.S. the Basketball Team with all their victories, to anyone who's a good loser.

I, Raffella Cappelli, leave all my best wishes for a successful and happy year to Judy Guandalini.

I, Barry Carangelo, leave my parking space to anyone who can get there early enough in the morning.

I, Fran Caro, leave my collage on the Sachem Room wall to Cathy Jensen with the hope that she likes steam.

I, Bruce A. Chaplin, bequeath to Mr. Dodds all appropriate literature.

I, Philip Cognata, leave Karen Mullen with sadness.

I, Harvey Colby, leave to N.H.H.S. all the air I have exhaled this year and my 19c Bic pen.

I, Wendy Cole, leave my "growing pains" to Mr. Church in thanks, and the fascination with originality that Ruth Hansen left me to anyone of the Juniors on the squad who can be more successful with it.

I, Betty-Lou Collett, leave N.H.H.S. just a little smarter, slightly more outgoing, and with a better "attitude" than when I came.

I, David Cameau, leave a big pile of grass and twigs to John for his four-speed, to George a Dealers License for cars, to Frank my permission to go to St. Mary's anytime he wants, and to Mr. Morris my UPI machine.

I, Doug Culp, leave to some reasonable facsimile, all my "enjoyable" times reading college catalogues.

I, William Day, leave the most confusing formula ever written to Mr. Edwards and his next book.

I, Celeste DeFilio, leave North Haven High with no wishes to return, and to Judy G., Anita S., and Kathy R., memories that could never be forgotten.

I, David Delaney, leave my brain to N.H.H.S. in hopes that it can find more ways to use it than I did.

I, Paul DelVecchio, leave North Haven High in hopes that Mr. Higgins becomes the first male librarian ever in North Haven history.

I, Donna DeNuzzo, leave N.H.H.S. my gymsuit.

I, Lorraine DeRogatis, leave N.H.H.S. to my brother, Felix DeRogatis Jr., who ought to be in it in 11 years.

I, JoAnne DeSimone, leave to Paula Thomas "my switchboard" at the West Campus.

I, Alex DeStefano, leave N.H.H.S. because I'm sick of it.

I, Jen Detoro, will all the sponges on the football field to Joan Zymajtis and all future adventurous schemes after hours to Priscilla Hazeltine.

I, Mary DeVita, leave to the Majorettes the secrets of an electronic Baton hoping that they can do away with harrassing phone calls.

I, Barb DiNuzzo, will my Russian split to any Cheerleader next year who can do it, in hopes that she will not forget me when she does it.

I, Donna Dower, leave to Mr. D'Angelo all my chewing gum left in his basket.

I, Norma Eckert, leave my fake split and undersized bloomers, that Tacy Hazeltine left me, to Priscilla Hazeltine.

I, Patty Endel, bequeath to Miss Casper one slightly mangled, 6' 1½" invisible rabbit, complete with purchase order, to be used as seen fit.

I, Richard Englehardt, leave Alan Taylor's blood, sweat and tears to any Sophomore boy who can use them; congratulations and at long last a life of peace to N.H.H.S., having survived the ordeal of 15 years of Englehardts; and my ability in bull sessions to Neil Salowitz.

I, Denise Esposito, leave to the girls of N.H.H.S. the "beautiful" mirrors on the girls' locker rooms walls.

I, Liz Esposito, leave the 5 minute run and an oxygen tank to any girl who has Mrs. Urbanski next year.

I, Paula Falcigno, leave Mr. DeLucia happy to see me and my "brilliant ideas" leave.

I, Gail Farace, leave to N.H.H.S. Mrs. Urbanski's "candy store" in hopes that others will find out about it and enjoy all the "goodies".

I, Kevin Fitzpatrick, leave Mr. Higgins a quieter library.

I, Karen Formichella, leave to Joan Zymajtis, a future junior for her to persecute in Gym.

I, Marc Gehring, leave to N.H.H.S. my chess board, but unfortunately I must take the wood.

I, Tony Giordano, leave my dramatic ability to Mr. Simons, my status to Mr. DeMayo, my jokes, to Mr. Lange, and everything else to Miss O'Brien.

I, Roger Girard, leave my pack of Luckies to Mr. Jaffe.

I, Rob Grant, leave my thanks and appreciation to Mrs. Burt for her help and interest in my college plans which may include graduate work at Saigon University.

I, Carol Grasso, leave my peanut butter jar — empty.

I, Paula Gray, leave French to my baby brother and my future to Jim.

I, Jeffrey Hanks, leave a lock of my hair to Mr. Antonelli; and Mr. D'Angelo.

I, Bob Hart, leave my bowling arm to Bob Martin, Bob DeLorenzo, and Manuel Tancreti, who will need it to win those sodas from Mr. C.

I, Linda Hill, leave to any junior, my luck of getting caught smoking in the lav just before vacations.

I, Martin Hillman, leave my phone number to anybody that is interested: 248-2324.

I, Jerelynn Hines, leave my first name to any English teacher who wishes an attempt to pronounce it.

I, Wallace C. Hutton II, leave my ability to catch passes, a locker full of Coke bottles and a quiet library to Peter Fink and S.E.B.

I, Frank Iaccarino, leave with hopes the swim team has a better record in the future and I wish a lot of luck to our bus driver, Mr. Keough.

I, Clare Johnson, leave my smile to Claudia Flynn in hopes that she might put it to good use next year.

I, Gerri Joy, leave nothing.

I, Buck Kelsey, leave Mr. Winsco one baritone horn, totally spent after many hours of diligent practice.

I, Otto Kieslich, leave to anyone who wants them, my orange socks.

I, Susan Knaut, leave 30 pieces of silver, coined at the Roman Mint of Jerusalem, to Steve Herrick.

I, John Kotchian, leave my spot on the Chess team to some lucky Junior.

I, Ken Kuehlewind, leave the A.V. Dept. complete with keys and Excedrin to Mr. Lozowski and the boys.

I, Robin LeQuire, leave to my sister Laurie, my best wishes for a successful senior year and future happiness.

I, Linda Lewis, leave my knitting needles to anyone who can accomplish as many sweaters as I did in their free mods! Good Luck!

I, Judy Lucibello, leave all the broken office machines to any repairman brave enough to fix them.

I, Barbara Marak, leave with Bill Jurczyk.

I, Mike Marone, leave my basketball moves to Bob Carrano.

I, Donna Mastriani, leave the tambourine, triangle, woodblock, and all those other fun instruments to Glenn and Dave.

I, Dennis McDonald, bequeath my wonderous ability to withstand intensive interrogation to Blaine Kaiser and Rich Bicknell.

I, Martin McGrory, leave my superior brain to Mr. Cavaliere and Mr. Gentile for further scientific research and study.

I, Barb Melillo, leave the Treasury books to any Junior who has the courage; I also leave the library in silence.

I, Randy Miller, leave to Thurl Stalnaker my iron toe.

I, Marianne Miranda, leave the next year's Biography Editors all the lost biographies.

I, Mark Moore, leave Anthony DeLucia, Robert Dodds, and Donald Simens, the greatest and most inspirational men in my life, to anyone lucky enough to have them in the future.

I, Debby Morgillo, leave my heart and my future to H. H. Griffiths in hopes that our dreams will come true.

I, Sherry Nerreau, leave my place in Gym class to anyone who likes to run a lot.

I, Priscilla Newcomb, leave my free mods in Pumpkin Hall to anyone who really needs them.

I, Nancy Novarro, leave my pencil to Mr. Edwards.

I, Jane O'Connor, leave the corner of Robin Court to Linda Odaynik.

I, Janet Olney, leave the over abundant basketball uniform, that Marge Biglieri left me, to Debbie Cipollini, in hopes that she may someday fill it.

I, Sharon Pallman, leave the Music Department to any soprano crazy enough to join.

I, Melissa Palmer, leave N.H.H.S. gladly.

I, Rita Palmisano, leave hoping that Debbie Dillon, Bonnie Marone, Frannie Gawrych, and Jane Leary have as much fun as I did.

I, Phyllis Papa, leave N.H.H.S. all the broken chairs that I have caught my nylons on.

I, Suzanne Parese, leave N.H.H.S. my beautifully decorated locker.

I, Karen Pendleton, leave Mr. Dudley and Mrs. Hilton to anyone who is lucky enough to get them and thoughtful enough not to abuse them.

I, Janet Pettorini, leave to Gail Sicignono all the table space in the Business Resource Center to write whatever her heart desires.

I, Nancy Pohlman, leave to N.H.H.S. Miss Calo and her office machines class.

I, Vanessa Poulton, leave to N.H.H.S. all the headaches and bellyaches that go along with S.A.T.'s.

I, Dorothy Randall, leave to any girl who likes to work for someone nice, my job of putting books on the shelves for Mrs. Bearse.

I, Mary Ann Reynolds, leave to Mr. Burrill all my great typing skills and high scores on test timings.

I, Anne Sarro, will my seat in the office to any Junior capable of filling it as much as I did.

I, Deb Schott, leave Mr. Simens and all his glorious "compliments" to some other poor deserving soul.

I, William Smith, being of sound mind and body, will to my sister, Linda, the ability to enjoy Trigonometry, and to Blaine Kaiser, my protege, I leave my jersey #10, and the ability to get rebounds.

I, Nancy Stevenson, leave — Gung Ho to Gene Cippilinini!

I, Tony Suchy, leave my first fish disection to Mr. Cavaliere, my Biology teacher.

I, Diane Testa, bequeath my everlasting love, luck, and future happiness to Karen and Dennis.

I, Carol Soboleski, leave to Claudia Flynn, as Jan Sokolowski left to me, my sometimes uncoordinated short cheers in hopes that she will be more awake at games than I was.

I, Lynn Thomann, leave Danny Tallon a pat on the head.

I, Pat Tondalo, leave the name of the Docboys in the school's history.

I, Michael Vaughn, leave a bright road to usher my younger sisters into a brighter world: the world of education.

I, Michael Votto, leave the N.H.H.S. Tweeds $2.25 for a haircut.

I, Cathy Vorio, leave Mr. DeMayo's big blue eyes.

I, Ann White, leave the Business and Guidance Departments with a tear in my eye and a smirk on my face.

I, Ronald Wu, leave N.H.H.S. the Modular System.

I, Wendy Yacek, leave the Guidance Staff to any Senior girl deranged enough to work for them.

I, Artis Yopp, leave to N.H.H.S. and its "liberals" the perseverence and dedication to start and fulfill a cause, regardless of other influences.

We, Carol Soboleski and Clare Johnson, leave our fantastic ability to do mounts to any cheerleaders worthy of it.

We, Brien Rowley and Alan Clark leave to N.H.H.S. the path to the office to anyone who wants to be as tardy as we were.

We, Marilyn LaMonaca and Rita Palmissano leave Debbie Dillon, taking Gerry with us.

We, Pam, Anne, and Gayle leave our untaken showers to any Juniors who can come up with the excuses that we did.

We, Mary Luneburg and Linda Berg-Johnson leave PV=T to Mr. Anderson with pleasure.

We, Anne, Linda, and Jane leave the garter on the clock in Mrs. Urbanski's Locker Room to any Junior who loses hers.

We, Jo-Ann Barbanski and Cathy Sanford, leave to any future students of Chemistry a great knowledge of English; you'll need it if you get Mr. A.!!!

We, Paula Falcigno, Marilyn LaMonaca and Barbara Zimmermann leave to Mr. Burrill life-size pictures of us as substitutes for the girls who were never in his Advisory Room.

We, Nancy Edmonds and Betty-Lou Collett, leave the coffee and gossip corner in room 305 to anyone who wants to know what is really going on.

We, the frequent users of the Guidance Office, leave our thanks and our self-made "talking study" to Mrs. Burt and Mr. Nappi.

We, Mary Poppins and Elvin Bishop, leave N.H.H.S. our spirit.

We, Michael Cozzolino and Buddy Mastriani leave to N.H.'s football team Danny Tallon and Walter Reynolds to act as Captain Kangaroo.

We, Maryann Coppa and Patty Migliaro, leave all the bells that ring too soon in N.H.H.S. to Pam Coppa and Debbie Cipollini, in hopes that they'll walk faster next year.

We, Joe DePaola and Paul DelVecchio, leave Mr. Simens, a really great guy!

We, the 1968 SACHEM Editors leave in the hopes that the 1970 Editors do not bother the 1969 Editors as the 1969 Editors bothered us.

We, the class of '68, leave N.H.H.S. as the first graduating class under the modular system, in hopes that it fulfills its promise in the future.

Within You Without You

We were talking — about the space between us all
And the people — who hide themselves behind a wall of illusion
Never glimpse the truth — then it's far too late — when they pass away.
We were talking — about the love we all could share — when we find it
To try our best to hold it there — with our love
With our love — we could save the world — if they only knew.
Try to realize it's all within yourself
no-one else can make you change
And to see you're really only very small, and life flows on within you and without you.
We were talking — about the love that's gone so cold and the people,
Who gain the world and lose their soul — they don't know — they can't see — are you one of them?
When you've seen beyond yourself — then you may find, peace of mind, is waiting there —
And the time will come when you see we're all one, and life flows on within you, and without you.
